“ Steph I am blessed to have gotten the opportunity to call you my friend. No matter how sad I am that you are gone when I think of you I giggle. Every single memory I have of you is a funny one. I am so grateful to have been your roommate and to have gotten to room with you on our cruise to Bermuda. My first chance at seeing the world I experienced with you. You brought such joy to my life and I guess because of all the laughing I couldn't see that you were dying inside. I will cherish all the great memories, like the day you called me so serious to tell me you left your new sneakers under the bed on the cruise ship asking me if I thought they would ship them back to you! So silly! I love you so much my friend and now Angel. Since no one else gets my humor the way that you did I will continue to tell my jokes to you in heaven and we can laugh about them when I get there.

“ My friend I love you! I am very fortunate that our paths crossed. You are an amazing women and I will miss you. You have made an impact on my life and I will be eternally grateful. Your kindness and compassion was like no other. You taught me what a friend is supposed to be. I am sorry that I couldn't be more of a help to you but I have to believe that your job was done here on earth and God saw fit to call u home. You now have some peace and rest with the angels.
